GEORGE SHIRLEY FAILS TO APPEAR FOR TRIAL YESTERDAY.

His Bond was Declared Forfeited and a Bench Warrant Issued for His Arrest-Farmer Doolittle and Other Citizens Left to Hold the Sack,

Where is George Shirley? That is a question Chief Cone and many others would like to have answered. George Shirley lives on West Central Yesterday was the day set for his trial in the district court of Harvey county. He should have been there at 9 o'clock, but ing and waited for him till 2 o'clock, but at that hour he was still absent, Judge Wall, one of his attorneys, then addressed the court, saying that he expected Shirley would appear on time, and was astonished because he did not. The charge against Shirley is arson. To be more specific be is charged with ourning the records of Harvey county some time ago.

By his alleged crime the evidence of title to nearly every piece of property in Harvey county was destroyed.

One morning last winter when the janitor of the Harvey county court house went to the building be smelt smoke. He went directly into the register of deed's room and as he opened the door a volume of smoke rushed out and nearly knocked him insensible. He gave the alarm at once, the vault door was opened and there is the middle of the floor the records of the county were found piled up and almost burned to ashes.

Au examination was made and it was found that the criminals had drilled through the brick wall of the safe, piled the books on the floor, saturated them with coal oil and ignited them with a lighted match.

The excitement that followed this was terrible, and no wonder. The entire county was affected by the loss.

The county commissioners at once employed one of the shrewdest detectives in Pinkerton's agency to hunt down the criminals, but in the course of two or three months they discharged him and looked around for other sleuth hounds to run down the game they were after. Chief Cone and Detective Wood of this city took the job and in two weeks had Wash Rogers of Newton and George Shirley of this city under arrest.

Previous to the burning of the records there was an abstracter at Newton who had the only set of abstract books in the Judge tilenn, who has been very ill for Rogers & Shirley. "HE STOLE MY HOG"

EDWARD BRILEY ACCUSED OF TAK-ING A FINE FAT PORKER.

The Owner Looked On and Followed the Alleged Thief Till the Hog Was in the Pen-A Good Many Cases of Robbery Brought to the Officer's Notice.

"Ed Briley stole my hog." That was, in substance, the tale of woe a young man named Stevens told County Attorney Boone yesterday morning.

Mr. Boone at once recognized the fact ten commandments and the laws of Kansas, and immediately caused a warrant to be issued for Mr. Briley.

Later in the forenoon the gentleman was arrested by one of the minions of Justice Jones' court, and, as a matter of course, he was indignant and hot. He was so hot Rev. N. F. Harmon spoke of the soldier that he was ready for trial then and there, and so was the county attorney. The show that that hog was stolen by somebody else, and thus the two great political opponents were brought together. When Mr. Boone and Mr. Amidon are against each other in a case it is bound to be hot Mr. Stevens testified that he saw Mr. Briley and another man stop at his premives, pick out the fattest and slickest hog in his possession, lift it into the wagon and drive away. He did not object, but followed until Briley reached a point on Hydraulic avenue, when they lifted the porker out of the wagon and put it into a pen. At that time Mr. Stevens had his elbows resting on one of the boards of the pig pen, calmly watching the movements of the men. When they looked around them they saw Stevens, remained there with that hog till broad as he said, for fear his porker might be transferred to some other place and he thus lose it. When daylight came he walked up to the county attorney's office and remained there till he had his complaint made and duly attested. Briley brought in some three or four persons to prove his reputation for honesty and integrity. One man failed to do it, but two others said that Briley was an honest man and a good citizen. Unfortunately for Mr. Briley's side of the case, Mr. Boone proved by themselves that one of them had been arrested three times in Wichita for a violation of the law, and the other spent a little while rusticating in the The case was continued till this morn-

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

On Monday evening next the doors of the Crawford Grand will swing wide open-for the great scenic production of Lincoln J. Carter's "Fast Mail." The railway has often been used by the dramatist, but never before to such an extent as in Carter's famous play, "The Fast Mail." A freight train with fourteen cars, a lighted caboose and a full-sized locomo-tive, with engineer and fireman, crosses the stage in the most realistic and noisy manner, while later in the play a great Mississippi Fiver steamboat, with bells and whistles and engines in full operation, moves in and explodes with terrific force. A great scene is also given of Niagara, in real, tumbling water. The company is a most efficient one, and there is a great deal of fun to go with the sensational effects. A special car for the scenery is that stealing a hog was against both the used, and every detail is carefully looked to in the stage production of the play.
